

Occipital decodes the film's visual dynamics, not its valence

Leave-one-subject-out, 5 subjects/film. Bars clearing their error cap decode above their own chance level; valence does not, on either film.

